2. PRINCIPLES OF INTERACTION

Principle

- 2.1. The Company is eligible to offer several types of Trading Accounts with different characteristics and features. The Company also reserves the right to change Trading Accounts' features and eligibility criteria and to make the type of the Trading Account unavailable at any time. The Company will give prior notice of such changes on the Website, by email, or on the Trading Platform.
- 2.2. We are a third party in relation to payment transactions, we do not process financial transactions ourselves, so the processing time of the request in the Terms and Conditions is the processing time of the request on our side and may differ from the processing time of the payment service.
- 2.3. Unless otherwise agreed in writing by the Company, the Client will deal with the Company as principal and not as an agent or representative of another person. This means that unless we agree otherwise in writing, we will treat you as the Client for all purposes, and the Client will be directly and personally responsible for performing obligations under each Contract entered by the Client, whether the Client is dealing with the Company directly or through an agent.
- 2.4. If the Client acts on behalf of a principal, whether or not the Client identifies that principal to us, such principal will not be the Client of the Company. We will accept no obligations to them and will only deal with you unless we otherwise agree (to the satisfaction of our requirements).
- 2.5. The Company will deal with the Client on an execution-only basis unless otherwise agreed by the Company.
- 2.6. The Company is not liable to (unless outlined in the Client Agreement):

- 2.6.1. track any Client's trading operation status and inform the Client about it;
- 2.6.2. close any Client's open Position;
- 2.6.3. attempt to execute any Client's Order by Quotes different from those offered in the Trading Platform.

- 2.8. The Company is entitled to refuse the provision of service to the Client at any time, and the Client agrees that the Company is not obliged to provide reasoning for such action.
- 2.9. The Company is not a tax agent and acts under the legislation of Belize. The Client complies with their tax and/or any other obligations independently and on their own. The Client is solely responsible for all documents, tax returns, and reports on any transactions that must be submitted to any relevant authority, whether governmental or otherwise, and for the payment of all taxes arising from any transaction, income, or in connection with them.

- 2.12. Any Order or instruction sent by the Client via the Trading Platform will be deemed to have been received and will only constitute a valid instruction and binding Contract between you and the Company in exceptional cases when such Order or instruction has been recorded as accepted by the Company, and the Confirmation is provided to you via the Trading Platform.
- 2.13. The transmission of an Order or instruction to the Company does not automatically give rise to a binding Contract between the Client and us. The Client is responsible for contacting the Company if a Confirmation is expected in relation to a transaction but is not received.
- 2.14. Any delay or errors in the transmission of an Order or the execution of instructions will not be our responsibility, nor are we liable for them (except to the extent that responsibility cannot be excluded by law).

- 4.13. Without prejudice to the rest of the provisions of the Client Agreement, the Client may send request(s) for fund withdrawal from the Trader Area, and the Company shall undertake to send funds to the Client's account in accordance with the details stated in the request for withdrawal. The Company shall not be responsible for the period of transfer following the execution of the withdrawal request.
- 4.14. In exceptional cases, if the Client requests a withdrawal to an account other than the account from which the deposit was made, the Client warrants that the details provided are correct, that the account can be funded, that the account belongs to the Client, and that the account is in the actual possession of the Client. The Client is solely responsible for the payment details provided by the Client to the Company, and the Company does not accept any responsibility for the Client's funds if the payment details the Client has provided to the Company are incorrect or incomplete.

- 4.15. However, the Company reserves the right, at its sole discretion, to carry out all necessary checks and take measures to ensure that the account actually belongs to the Client.

- 4.18.5. If the Account has been funded by a debit or credit card, the Company has the right to request a copy of the credit card. The copy must include the first six (6) and last four (4) digits of the card number, the cardholder's name, and the expiration date.
- 4.19. The Company reserves the right to set the minimum deposit amount and minimum withdrawal amount in accordance with the requirements of the payment service provider. Deposits below the minimum amount, as well as those sent by mistake or from an incompatible payment method, may result in the loss of funds; deposits below the minimum amount shall be considered non-refundable. The Client acknowledges that the Client risks losing funds if the sent amount is below the minimum deposit. The Client acknowledges and agrees that the Company will not be able to process a withdrawal request if the requested amount is less than the minimum withdrawal amount set by the payment service provider. Before submitting a withdrawal request, the Client should ensure that the requested amount is equal to or above the minimum amount required for each withdrawal method. The Client agrees that their funds are subject to forced withdrawal if the Company blocks the Trading Account and Trader Area. The Client also admits the Company's right to block the Trading Account and Trader Area without carrying out a withdrawal if the Client's funds are below the minimum withdrawal amount set by the payment service provider.

Internal transfer

- 4.20. The Client may request a transfer of funds to another Trading Account, provided the latter trading account supports the relevant fund deposit/withdrawal method. Internal transfer shall be executed only between accounts of the same type or between different types of accounts if the transfer amount is greater than the required minimum initial deposit.
- 4.21. The Company shall process the transfer of funds to another Trading Account in the currency of that Trading Account.

- 4.27. The Company does not tolerate credit card fraud, and all fraud, without exception, may be prosecuted through criminal proceedings in the Client's local jurisdiction to the fullest extent of the law. In addition, the Company may pursue civil legal action in your local jurisdiction seeking any loss of income related to the fraud, including business, legal fees, research costs, and loss of revenues.
- 4.28. Fraudulent transactions are immediately canceled after being detected. Any open Orders associated with the same fraudulent credit card will also be canceled immediately.

- 4.29. The Company considers credit card chargebacks to be fraudulent if the Client makes no reasonable effort to work with the Company to resolve any problems with the Client's deposit.
